

LEADERSHIP MENDOCINO

Overview of Leadership Issues in Healthcare and Lifestyle, Mendocino County

Friday, Dec. 12, 2008

Today's Goal is: To explore health care and social services in Mendocino County and gain an understanding of the issues and leadership shaping this important sector.

- 8:00 – 8:15 a.m. Coffee and introduction to the day
- 8:15 – 8:30 a.m. Welcome and Introduction
“Mendocino Coast District Hospital, History and Leadership”
Ray Hino, President, Coast Hospital in Ft. Bragg
- 8:30—10 a.m. Panel Discussion and Overview of the Mendocino County Healthcare System: “What is the role of each organization in the healthcare safety net? How are you impacted by the global, federal and state economic crises and what are you doing to prepare for an ongoing economic recession? From a leadership standpoint, what are the 3 crucial challenges facing the healthcare delivery system in Mendocino County?”
Carmel Angelo, director of County Health and Human Services
Ray Hino, president, Coast Hospital in Ft. Bragg
Paula Cohen, Coast Community Clinic
Dr. William Rohr, Mendocino-Lake County Medical Society
Susan Era, director of County social services
- 10—10:15 a.m. Break
- 10:15—Noon Leadership Skills Development Mini-Workshop: Effective Decision-Making on Boards of Directors and for Class Project Development
Claire Ellis, organizational consultant; board chair, Community Foundation of Mendocino County
Susanne Norgard, executive director, Community Foundation
- Noon -- 1 p.m. Lunch
- 1:00 – 3 p.m. Experiential Learning of Social Services and Healthcare Options, with Mentors
Teams: domestic violence, low-income healthcare options, drugs and children, options for jobless people, options for the developmentally disabled, and options for uninsured people who are ill. Each team will work with a mentor.
- 3-4 p.m. Debrief with Mentors
- 4—5 p.m. Project Time